Natural goodness grows in the sandy farm fields surrounding the small crossroads town of Sedley where our business, Hubbard Peanut Company, began in 1954. Recognized by the American Peanut Council as the founder of the gourmet peanut industry, Dot Hubbard was inspired by the bountiful harvests of peanuts grown on her father's farm. From the kitchen of our tiny home and with four children running about, Dot pioneered a unique but simple recipe for cooking peanuts. Her husband, HJ, (also known as Hub) shared her exceptional peanuts with fellow employees at the paper mill, local drugstores, and restaurants and soon through word of mouth, the world learned how good Virginia peanuts could really be.

Just as the peanut vine spreads and puts down pegs in the soil, our family's roots are firmly planted in this community. After 65 years of establishing deep roots in Sedley, Virginia where Dot and HJ Hubbard began cooking, packaging, and shipping Hubs peanuts all those years ago, we have spread a little farther afield. On September 10, 2020, we opened the doors to this, our second location.

Because of this location along Rt 58 which traverses southern Virginia from the Atlantic to the Blue Ridge, we were inspired to provide a venue where customers could shop and find pleasure in a bite to eat while learning a little of our local and unique rural culture. In this setting, we are excited to see families relax and be entertained with games, music, or watching our big screen TVs. We hope you will enjoy locally roasted coffee and churned ice cream, plus the best peanuts on the planet and find much to LOVE at the Hubs Vine.

Thank you for visiting! We hope y'all will come back soon.
